FACULTY OF VETERINARY MEDICINE UNIVERSITY OF CORDOBA (Spain)

ITINERARIES IN ENGLISH

Internationalization is one of the distinctive features of the University of Cordoba (Spain) with a specific Plan for the Enhancement of Plurilingualism.

In this context, it offers two English itineraries supported by Faculty of Veterinary: Food Science and Technology and Veterinary Medicine degree.

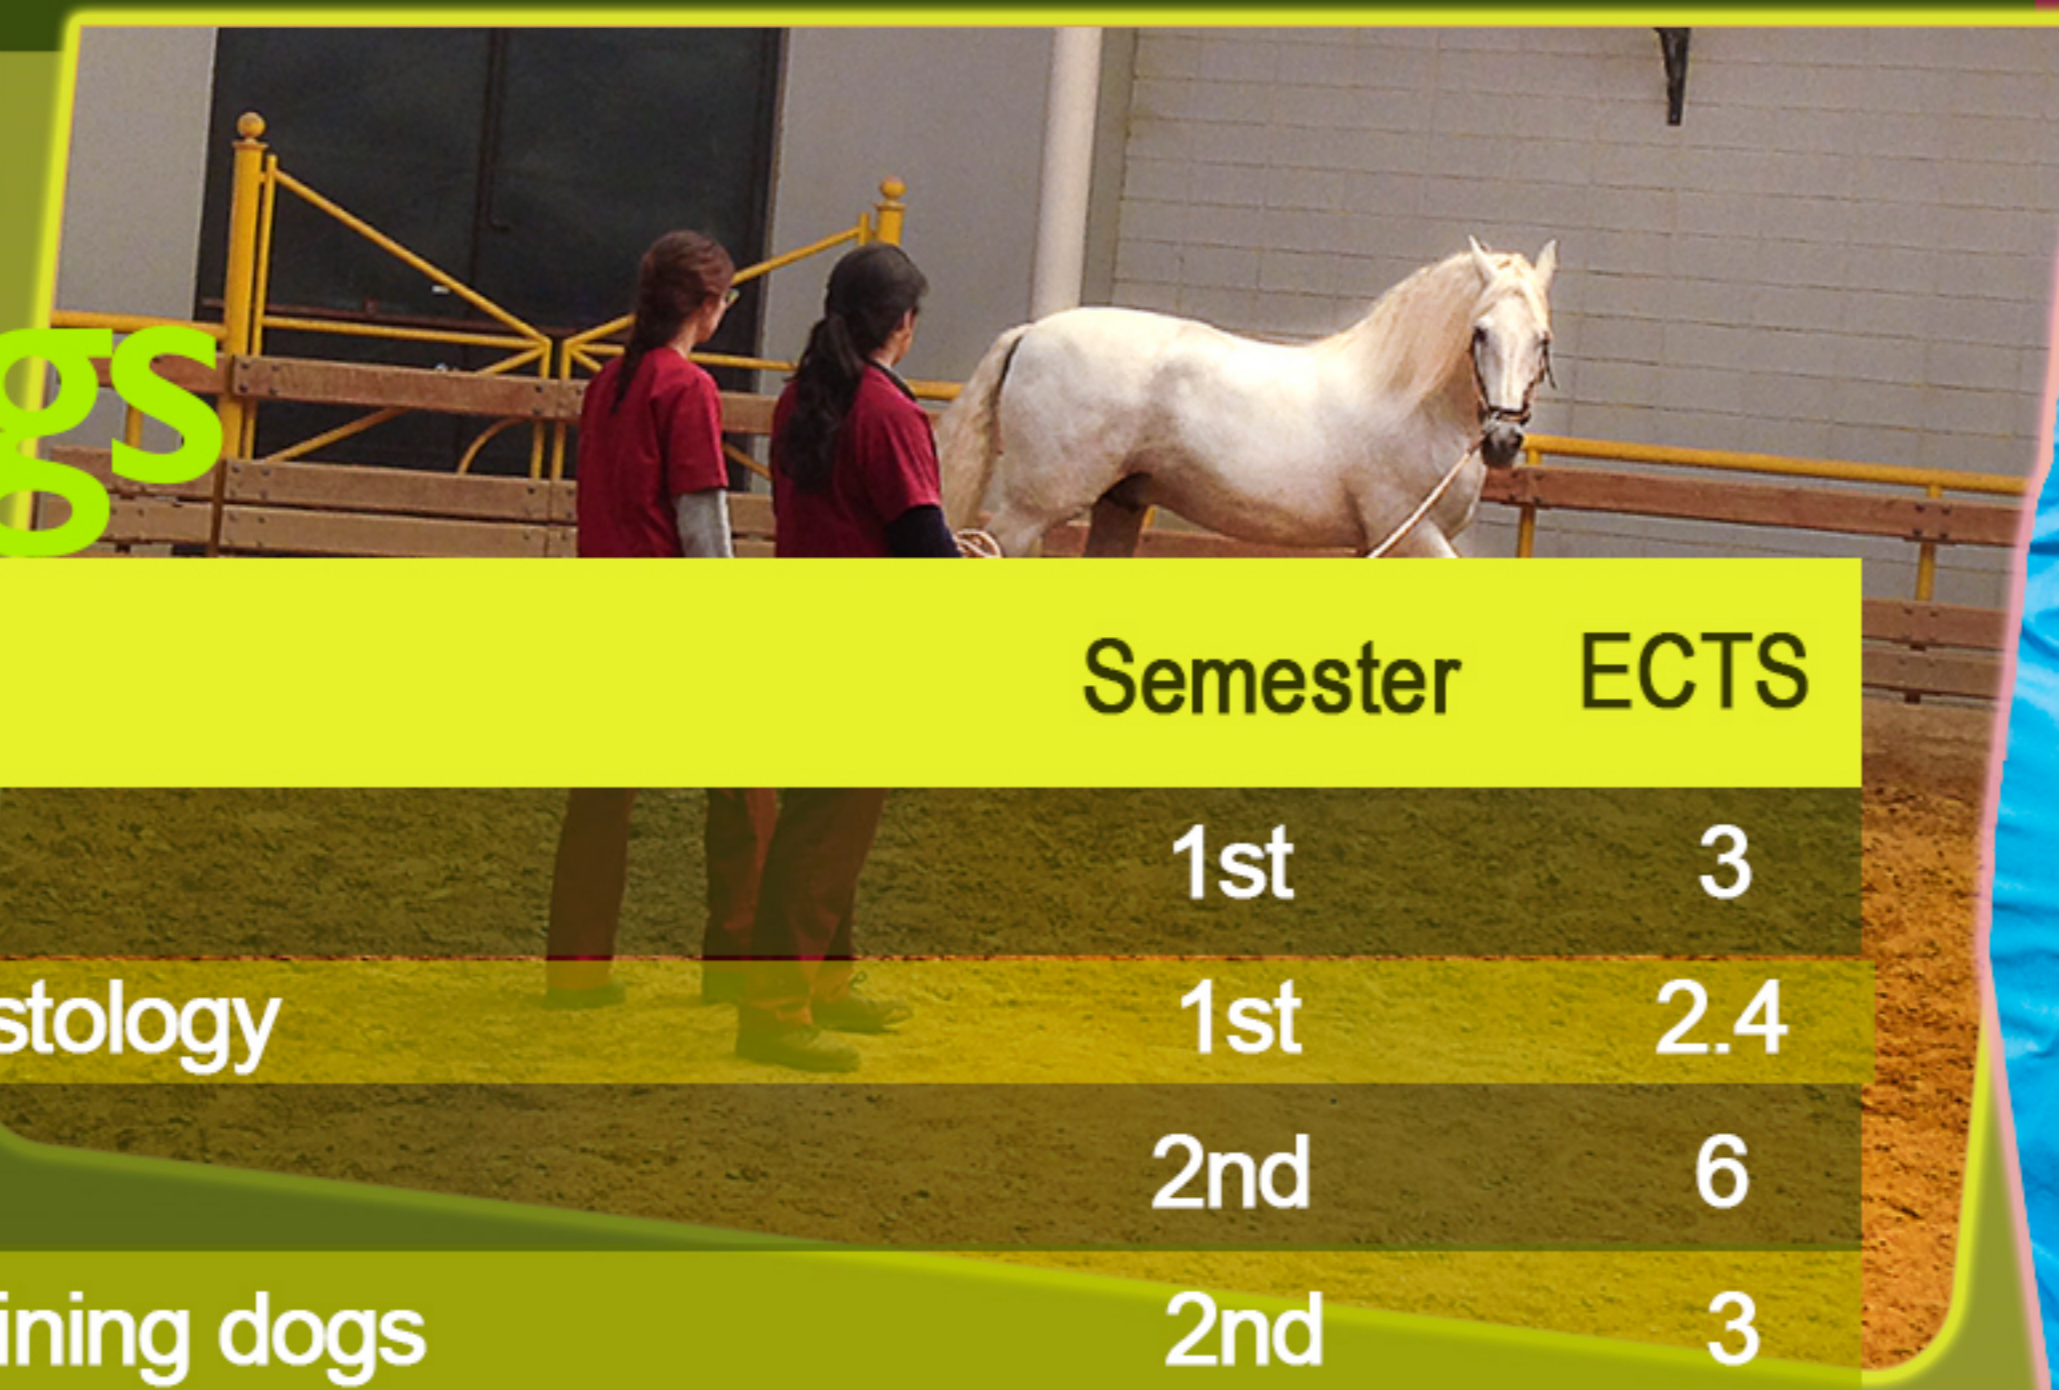

Next academic year 28 subjects will be offered. Students who succeed in any of these courses will be awarded a Certificate issued by the University of Cordoba (Spain), and it will be attached to the European Diploma Supplement.

To whom? Spanish or International students who certify a B1 level of English, or through previous interview.

How? For further information about registration for subjects, ask about the English itinerary at the Secretary desk or visit our website.
